Rodriguez, Rodolfo & Lissette - Church Planter

I was able to visit Rodolfo and Lissette just a couple of weeks ago, the weekend after Easter. Rodolfo invited me to come to attend a gathering of their pastors from across the island. About 25 gathered for this conference which was held at Rodolfo's home in Havana.

I met 2 new pastors from the city of Contramaestra. These young men have other employment and both felt called by God to start new congregations. It was great to hear of their enthusiasm and passion to share the gospel and see new churches planted. Rodolfo is training these new pastors and will travel next week 12 to 15 hours in the back of a big truck, to Contramaestra to teach another seminary course to the pastors.

The church Rodolfo pastors in Havana has seen many new believers recently. On Good Friday Rodolfo preached a gospel message and 5 people came to know Christ. On Easter Sunday he had the privilege of baptizing a couple who recently came to know Christ. Rodolfo had known them from his high school days. On the following Sunday, when I was visiting there Rodolfo began the service with a brief Scripture and prayer. And then he immediately gave an invitation for people to come to Christ and 2 more responded! God is doing wonderful things in Cuba.

When Rodolfo and Lissette returned to Cuba last fall they took 6 suitcases, mostly filled with food and medicine. During the conference I heard many stories from the pastors of what a great blessing those supplies had been; to the pastors, to their congregations, and to their communities. They were so thankful! Many of you contributed to this, so Thank You!

Broadview is supporting these churches in Cuba financially and others are providing additional financial support. They expressed their great appreciation for the financial and prayer support from Broadview Church.

Thank you for your interest and support for our brothers and sisters in Cuba!

On behalf of Rodolfo, Bob Bartell
